UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

March, 2022

Greetings, my awesome United Women in Faith!

It's official! United Methodist Women is now United Women in Faith!

If you receive RESPONSE magazine, there is an article in the March/ April issue that tells you all about it, including an FAQ/Frequently Asked Questions about United Women in Faith.

Harriett Jane Olson, CEO of United Women in Faith writes: 'This is an exciting time for our organization! Looking back, we see the tag lines for our organization – faith in God and commitment to women, children and youth – and how this has been expressed in different ways at different times, always calling women into action that changed the world. This refreshment opens up new opportunities for us to continue to make that happen.'

The 'New Wineskins' campaign is based on the scripture Mark 2:21-22 (NIV) 'No one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins.' United Methodist Women is making new wineskins so that new generations of women can join in the joy of turning faith into action with a community of like-minded women. It's about exciting changes, new programming and membership opportunities, more tools and templates, and spreading this great news with members during this time of transition.

Yvette Moore, director of public relations and marketing, writes: 'This is indeed an exciting time for our organization, as we move forward into our future. Together, we can do more. Our strengths and steadfast Christian faith are needed now more than ever. Let's stand united as, together, we continue to put love in action. You are our future. Welcome to United Women in Faith!'

Betty Shippee, NEC United Women in Faith President

Greetings from your Vice President, Sherry Culver!

Greetings United Women in Faith!

This has been a tough few weeks to watch the news. The invasion of Ukraine stirs up many memories and events from the past. It seems that the world continues to be caught in cycles of oppression and greed for territory, power, and personal influence. I am reminded that we have to make things right in our own back yards for the world to be a better place for women, children and youth. And this begins with Lent and a serious reflection on who we are as United Women in Faith.

Yes- we have changed our name – but our purpose and priorities remain the same. We are called to act on behalf of women, children and youth and to respond with faith, action and sisterhood.

As some of you know, I participate in the Reading Program – these books are varied and offer different viewpoints into the world from what I would otherwise get on Facebook, listening to the nightly news or conversations at work. But the most recent book I read was not from the reading program. It is by Jodi Picoult, titled "Wish You Were Here", and is a story about one woman's COVID experience over the last 2 years. Even though it is fiction, the book describes in detail all that we have gone through – acknowledging our uncertainty, fears, frustration and isolation.

But the point of the book is not to rehash what happened in the last 2 years but to go forward. As the book points out - It doesn't matter what happened or how we addressed it. It matters how we go on from here and what choices we make with our time and talents and money. The specific quote from the book that sticks with me is this:

"The truth is it doesn't matter how or why .... It never will. Trying to figure out what happened isn't important. It is what I do with what I learned that counts. All of us are grieving something. We are putting one foot in front of the other, we are waking up to see another day, we are pushing through uncertainly even if we can't yet see the light at the end of the tunnel. We are battered and broken, but we are all small miracles."

Yes – you and I are small miracles – and what we do matters. What we do from here forward matters. We have a new name – United Women in Faith – and what we do with this new name and the spark it starts matters. I hope that each of you will reflect on the last 2 years – but not dwell in it – and choose to move forward. Be the spark needed for United Women in Faith. Invite women to participate. Make United Women in Faith a personal priority! Because we are all miracles – spreading our wings for women, children and youth.

Peace and blessings,

Sherry Culver, VP NECUWF

Secretary's Report

A message from your secretary....

Over the past several months I have been fortunate to attend many Zoom Meetings with the National Office as well as other Conference Secretaries from around the country. I have learned a lot from these meetings. And wanted to pass along some tips that I found helpful, to other secretaries. These tips apply to Unit Secretaries, District Secretaries, or even if you're a secretary at one of your church boards.

This tip is on Proof Reading.

Definition of Proof reading is: to read and mark corrections in (something, such as a proof).

Proofread with Care

Secretaries you have been entrusted with a heavy responsibility and while accuracy of information is your primary goal, you also have the obligation of making that information understandable to others. It won't be if you don't proofread every word you typed. You will also blow your credibility as a reliable information provider if you produce minutes that are filled with misspell words, incomplete sentences, abbreviations and inaccurate punctuation. Take pride in your work, and keep in mind the expression: "What's worth doing is worth doing well."

Please contact me if you have any questions on taking minutes, storing minutes or what are minutes. I will be contacting you.

THANK YOU 3/2022

In the 150 years since we began, our organization has had more than 25 names, each reflecting varying states of the church, society, and women’s lived experiences. We’ve been “Ladies,” “Woman’s” and then “Women’s” societies, associations, guilds, and circles.

Now we are again taking a new name to better reflect how we answer our calling to faith and action today:

‘Ainise ‘Isama’u, current board president, said the changes express our core values open new pathways for women to put their faith and love in action.

“We are creating more opportunities for engagement through new programs and updates of long-standing programs that embody our core values,” she said. “Things change. People change. But God remains, and that continues to be the purpose behind everything that we do in this organization.”

Introductions to the new programs and innovations will be key of United Women in Faith’s upcoming “Turn It Up!” Assembly, a hybrid event in Orlando, Florida, and via remote workshop and plenary offerings on Zoom.

You’re invited to the first-ever Legacy Banquet! A special fundraising event to celebrate and grow The Legacy Endowment Fund

- A sit-down dinner during Assembly, on Saturday, May 21, from 6:30 to 8 p.m.
- Single tickets must be purchased in advance, online, separately from your Assembly registration at the following link: <http://umw.convio.net/site/Calendar?id=102083&view=Detail>

WORKING TOGETHER

All of us want to make a difference in others' lives. We can have a positive effect through what we do and say, how we live, and the issues we embrace. There are many problems and injustices in our world but there are also many ways that we, as United Women in Faith, can work together to help solve problems and eradicate injustice.

Each of us as "one individual United Woman in Faith" needs to remember that we do not "go it alone". We are part of a huge group of women, over 800,000 strong, who make a difference by dealing with key issues affecting women, children, and youth.

Working together we offer strength, opportunities and effectiveness. We study together at Mission U, choose books from the Reading Program and some of us read together in a book group, we learn together. We make pledges to mission, give to 5 Star Giving, and participate in programs that keep us connected, striving and thriving.

Stay connected as United Women in Faith. Come to our district gatherings and our annual Conference meeting so we can meet you and get to know you better. Working together we can make a difference!

Sherry Anne Bryant, Program Committee

Hello Ladies!

We're already into the third month of the new year; can you believe it? The problems of life continue making each day a challenge if we let it. However, we have a God that's still in charge and is available to us 24, 7, 365! During these hard times, we are to focus on Him.

One of my daily readings says we are to refuse to worry because in this world there will always be problems. The awareness of His presence in our lives fills us with peace. During these tumultuous days let's not let fear overtake us. Let us pour our energy into trusting and believing in His word.

During your meetings always invite Him in as a Guide. We need Him for our mission work that we do in His name. We are to love one another as He loves us. But we know that, huh?

Blessings to all,

Cynthia Norton

When: Saturday, October 22, 2022

Where: Wilmington UMC, Wilmington Massachusetts, Commonwealth East district

A few other notes

- Meeting is planned for in-person
- Cost remains the same - $15. Registration form will be in Summer Mission Trees
- There will be hotel suggestions and more details in the summer Mission Trees.

I am excited about this Gathering – Having organized 3 Gatherings so far with 2 on Zoom I can tell you that the online gatherings are just as difficult and in some way harder to organize. So I am looking forward to planning this in-person gathering with my wonderful Program Committee members Sherry Anne Bryant and Carol Stidger and the women of Wilmington UMC and the Commonwealth East District.

We hope you all will make plans to join us on Saturday, October 22, 2022– it's a beautiful time to travel and will be the first time in 3 years that we will gather in-person. So let's make this a meeting to remember.

Sherry Culver, your Vice President

Education and Interpretation

I hope this finds you all well and happy. Spring is almost here!

How many of you have joined in virtually to Voices from the Field or Faith Talks?

These are wonderful mission programs that would be great for programs with you District or with your local units. Voices from the Field focus on national and international initiatives supporting mission giving. How our monies are being used in the mission field. Voices from the Field are offered quarterly. Faith Talks are monthly discussions/conversations that explore themes and resources to empower us to put Faith, Hope and Love into action. Faith Talk podcasts can now be counted in the category of Spiritual Growth. You must participate or listen to two Faith Talks podcasts. If you participate/listen to three, it will be counted as a Bonus Book in the Spiritual Growth category.

Reading Program: It was determined that enlarging the 2021 list and combining the 2021 and 2022, Reading Lists, would be a better way to handle the situation for now due to Covid. The new list will be out in July 2022. Think of new ways to enjoy the books, such as Zoom book clubs or by sharing book reports. Invite book authors to join you for discussions time, programs, etc. Mix it up by recognizing books in 2021 and the Faith Talks podcasts, movies, and books in 2022. Movies and documentaries will also count toward the Reading Program. Here are the movies selected: “Just Mercy, “The Hate U Give” and “Pushout”. Think of other creative ways to promote the Reading Program.

If you are interested in serving as a Reading Program evaluator for 2022 please fill out this form before March 30th: <http://forms.gle/gwfcSPSX3Futu9>. It will take about 15 minutes.

The Annual Sampler is not available for 2022, possibly in the future but it’s on hold for now. Most of the material is online. New material is on hold due to Covid.

Daily Prayer Guide (Prayer Calendar) now has emails for missionaries. They’re no longer printing addresses. It is also by month with their birthday not by date anymore. Daily Prayer Guide can be found on Facebook.com/UMWprayercalendar

Response Magazine...How many of you read this wonderful resource magazine for the Mission stories? They can be used as programs in you district or local units. You have it available to you in print or online and it is also one of the requirements on the Mission Today forms. "Two bird with one stone!"

Speaking of Mission Today. The 2021 forms are due to your E&I coordinator so they will send them along to me for you recognition at our Fall meeting

I hope this has been helpful to you with information on Reading Program, Mission Today Forms, etc. If you have any questions send them along to me. If I don't have the answer, I will do my best to get it! My email and phone number are at the bottom. Call or email me anytime.

Luke 13: One Transformative Biblical Curriculum for Everyone

For more than a century we've been gathering annually to better understand how to live our faith in the world by studying for spiritual growth and learning about contemporary issues and neighbors in different geographic areas.

Beginning in 2022, we are taking an exciting new approach to Mission u curricula!

Mission u will now introduce three new curricula each year—one for adults, one for youth and one for children—all focusing on a shared biblical theme. Through these vibrant, relevant, justice-oriented and biblically centered curricula, Mission u will continue its commitment to learning together for the transformation of the world.

These inspiring curricula include opportunities for intergenerational learning and are designed to be easy to use in small groups, local churches, vacation Bible schools, retreats and other settings.

Developed by diverse teams, each study was tested in different church settings and adapted and optimized based on feedback. And now they are ready for you!

Dates coming up are:

- April 7-9- NNKUNW Officials retreat (LA, CA.)
- May 20-22-UMW Assembly (Florida)
- May 1-30-Individual Mission Walk for “Rise to Hunger” fundraiser
- June 4th-Mission Walk together for “Rise to Hunger” mission project.
- July-September Environment issues Seminar: Green Church” & Practice with local church.
- July 22-23 Mission u
- October 9 Praise Night
- November -Short Term Mission Trip to Hatti (TBD)

Shalom!

First, we thank God for productive mission fruits in the last year in the Lord’s guidance. We gathered virtually as many during the pre-pandemic period to be learning, worshipping, and praising God together, and to act for the mission.

The sewing ministry team made masks to distribute to the hospital, homeless people, and well dressed out pillow covers for little girls in Africa. The COVID pandemic and growing climate crisis made us pay attention to an environmental mission project called "Making Green Churches" in order to preserve and revive God’s creation.

We also actively raised funds through Bazar and the marketing team and could support 16 different places. We will keep continuing to write the history of the great women's mission for women, children, and youth with the same heart, passion, and vision.

We expect new things that will be done by God through us in 2022!

Best,

News from Granite District

Spring is around the corner. It's time for "back to normal" after our past two years full of uncertainty. I hope this finds you well. With God's blessings, Nancy

Let the nations turn from war and encourage one another as good neighbors.

Our NH District is delighted to invite you to the upcoming May 14 Spring outdoor social UMW meeting to be held at Wesley United Methodist Church in Concord, NH. We have planned a "bring your own lunch" with water and a light dessert served by the board members. Our agenda is to have a brief business meeting with a prayer of thanksgiving and a song or two. The Family Promise Program will provide information, and our guest speaker Ruth will offer a tour of the church. Also, you can browse the (under a tent) church annual plant sale to buy a "touch of spring". Our Granite District newsletter will be sent out in early April with more details. If you have any questions, you may contact me via nof42@comcast.net.

With mixed emotions, we share the news that Sharon Parker, our longtime board secretary who provided tireless support to all aspects of UMW for the past 11+ years, has announced her retirement from this position. With her winning personality, she has always had a smile and warm greetings for anyone who crosses her path. Her presence will be sorely missed. Over the years Sharon has been able to build on new ideas while sustaining what already existed as the base of what was to come. Her commitment to UMW and its growth in serving others has been unwavering. She has always had a strong desire to unite women of faith to build a sense of community, promote women's rights, and walk with the marginalized.

Sharon's decision to retire as secretary comes at a time when she and her husband plan extensive traveling. We will all miss her leadership but, rest assured, we know she will be an active part of the Granite District UMW when they return from their travels. We give our deepest thanks to Sharon for her many years as our secretary and send her on her way with our blessings and love. It's not goodbye, just an extended farewell until she returns from their travels.

In closing, the Granite District UMW board is in need of a treasurer effective June 30. If you feel the calling to join our board as treasurer, please contact Mary Jane (MJ) Anderson, (current treasurer) via maryjanean@comcast.net. MJ will provide you with training for this role.

Granite District UMW     Nancy Fransen, President

- Stafford Street is off of Route 20 and the church is about  $2/3^{\text{rds}}$  of a mile up the road. The church will be on the Right and is set back off of the road. Signage is clear and visible.
- From the West: Either access Route 20E and follow it through Sturbridge to Charlton or take the Mass Pike, Route 90E, to the Sturbridge Exit (old #9, new #78). Take Route I-84W to Exit 6A which will connect you to Route 20E. Stafford Street will be on the Left after about 5.2 miles and the church will be up the road  $2/3^{\text{rds}}$  of a mile on the Right.
- From the North: Stafford Street is a very long street that goes all the way into Worcester. Depending on where you are, GPS recommends different routes, not necessarily via Route 20.
- From the East: Again, depending on your starting point, GPS may not suggest using Route 20W. If you are directed to use Route 20W, Stafford Street will be on the Right and the church will be up the road  $2/3^{\text{rds}}$  of a mile on the Right.

Cooper seeks new Board Members

Who we are:

For more than 100 years, The Hattie B. Cooper Community Center (Cooper) has provided quality education and care to 100 children daily through the Infant and Toddler, Preschool and After-School programs. Cooper also offers community Computer classes and public access hours at its Timothy Smith Computer Center. Currently, we are also managing a PRE-K class connected to the Boston Public Schools. Cooper has a long history with the United Methodist Church, although the application for a Board position are open to all regardless of their religious affiliation.

Cooper's programs address the needs of children and their families living in Roxbury, Dorchester, and Jamaica Plain and surrounding areas. Most of the children come from low-income and/or single parent households.
